

Clore Shalom Play Charter

Inspired by the OPAL Ethos and Rooted in Clore Shalom Values

At Clore Shalom, we believe that every child has the right to play.

Play is freely chosen, creative, adventurous and fun. Through play, children develop confidence, resilience, friendships, imagination and a sense of belonging. We recognise that play is a fundamental right for all children and is essential for their wellbeing, learning and development.

Our Play Promise

At Clore Shalom, we will provide:

- ♣️ A rich and exciting environment where everyone can play.
- 🎨 Opportunities to be creative, imaginative and curious.
- 🤝 A welcoming space where everyone feels included and valued.
- 💡 Time and freedom to explore, invent, build, create and discover.
- ⚖️ Opportunities to take appropriate risks, solve problems and learn from mistakes.
- 😊 Adults who support play while encouraging independence and responsibility.

Our Rights

Every child at Clore Shalom has the right to:

- Play freely and have fun.
- Feel safe and included.
- Be respected and listened to.
- Try new things and take appropriate risks.
- Be creative and use their imagination.

- Choose how they play.
- Build friendships and work together.
- Enjoy the outdoor environment and natural world.

Our Responsibilities

To make playtimes enjoyable for everyone, we agree to:

Chesed:

- Treat others kindly and fairly.
- Help one another
- Celebrate each other's successes.
- Support others who need help.

Respect:

- Include everyone who wants to join in.
- Listen to different ideas and opinions.
- Care for our environment and equipment.
- Build positive friendships.
- Work together to solve problems.
- Look after resources and return them when finished.

Resilience:

- Make sensible choices.
- Manage risks thoughtfully.
- Take ownership of our actions.
- Keep trying when things are challenging.
