It's been a very big week in school culminating in the amazing Year 6 show – what an unbelievable showcase of talent with singing, acting, comic timing, stage fighting – the entire package. Thanks to the whole of Year 6 who made this such a special event and to Mrs Levenson, Mrs Scott and Mrs Frazer who worked so hard with the children to make this happen. Somehow Year 6 then found the energy to treat us to a medley of Jewish songs in Kabbalat Shabbat - we absolutely loved them. Well done to Year 5 for completing a fantastic residential, we had a brilliant time together with lots of personal challenges completed and happy memories made. Looking forward to a lovely last week of term, even though we've lost our chance of an extra bank holiday!!

Shabbat Shalom to all our families, have a great weekend.

Children who have been to see me with good work this week: the whole of Year 4 for amazing persuasive letters to me: Year 4 – no llamas or rollercoasters!

This will go live on Arbor from August 1st.

Tapestry downloads

As parents will be aware from parent reps, we are ending our Tapestry accounts this year except for Reception and Year 1 who will continue to use the platform. If you would like to download and keep your child's pictures, this must be done by the end of term. Once our accounts are deleted, they cannot be retrieved.

Mazel Tov to Miss Leigh who graduated as a teacher last night from LSJS. we are incredibly proud of her and so lucky that she is continuing her teaching career with us.

Books

Please note that we will be collecting all reading books, phonics books, and library books next week. We kindly ask that all books are returned to school by the end of the week so that we can complete our end-of-term inventory.

OPAL requests for next year

Time to get reading!

Here are our book club choices for this half term – let's do this!

Summer Term 2

Mrs Blaker's Book Club

Reception and Year 1:	Year 2-4	Year 5 & 6	Years 2-6
Unexpected Guests by Mariajo Ilustrajo Find out what happens when human beings move into a house that is owned by mice! Have you ever wondered about the secret worlds underneath your floor? A family of mice are worried when some human beings take over their house, as they've heard a lot of scary things about humans. Will these human beings turn out ok in the end? 	Frank the Monster by Mats Strandberg and Sofia Falkenheim, translated by Julia Marshall Frank is rather a lonely boy whose whole life changes when he is bitten by a dog. Something extraordinary happens and Frank sees his whole life from an entirely new perspective. Can Frank find a way to overcome his feelings of loneliness and find his way through a world that he never knew existed? 	How to Roller-Skate with One Leg by Ella Dove Maya Bright lost her leg in an accident, but that is the least interesting thing about her. She has a whole list of things that she wants to enjoy and achieve, and she won't let anything stop her. But Maya's friends and family have responded to her accident in different ways. Maya needs to find a way to show everyone around her how much she can achieve, despite the challenges she faces. 	Fresh by Rhiannon Oliver, illustrated by Chris Riddell How often to you sit down to enjoy a good poem? Fresh is a book of poems that celebrate things that are funny, scary, exciting and strange about life. The poems in Fresh are about feelings and experiences that are familiar to us all, but they help us all to see life in a whole new way.

A colorful illustration of a tea party in a garden. In the foreground, there is a white table with a blue tablecloth. On the table are two ornate teapots with floral patterns, several cups of tea on saucers, and plates of scones and pastries. In the background, there are lush green trees and various flowers, including large pink peonies and blue hydrangeas. The scene is bright and cheerful.
