

Intent

History helps children and young people to gain a coherent knowledge and understanding of Britain's past and of the wider world. It has a pivotal role to play in education as it inspiring pupils' curiosity about the past. We aim to build an awareness of significant events and individuals in global, British and local history and recognise how things have changed over time. History will support children to appreciate the complexity of people's lives, the diversity of societies and the relationships between different groups. Studying History allows children to appreciate the many reasons why people may behave in the way they do, supporting children to develop empathy for others while providing an opportunity to learn from mankind's past mistakes

By the end of Year 6, Clore Shalom children will have developed:

- Tolerance and respect for others by learning about the complexity of people's lives, the diversity of societies and relationships between different groups.
- Be responsible citizens by learning about the history of Britain, how people's lives have shaped this nation and how Britain has influenced and been influenced by the wider world.
- Resilience and independence by being inspired to ask their own thought-provoking questions about the past to develop a secure understanding of chronology throughout history.
- A life-long love of learning by embracing a love and curiosity for history through a historical enquiry based approach.
- Self-advocacy by learning how to construct informed responses that involves thought selection and organisation of relevant historical information.
